

Community Resource Coordination Groups (CRCG)- Local interagency groups that develop service plans for individuals and families whose needs can be met only through interagency coordination and cooperation.

Guiding Principles of CRCGs

- All CRCG members should have the authority to commit services or resources for individuals and families referred to the CRCG.
- The role of a CRCG is to develop a coordinated strengths-based Individual Service Plan (ISP).
- The involvement of the individual or family is essential to the success of the development and implementation of the ISP.
- Individuals referred are those who have encountered barriers to getting their entire needs met through existing resources and whose needs can be met only through interagency cooperation.
- Lead Entity-The agency with primary responsibility for providing services identified on the ISP is determined by the CRCG to be the lead entity for overseeing the plan and follow-up.
- CRCG Coordinator- Responsible for bringing together appropriate entities for ISP development as entities will vary based upon individual's presenting needs.
