

COMMUNITY ACTION NETWORK 2001	HOMELESSNESS Urgent Issues and Recommended Actions	Prepared by the Homeless Task Force
-------------------------------	---	-------------------------------------

Urgent Issue: Many families and individuals become homeless or cannot transition out of homelessness because of the shortage of affordable housing.

Data:

- 3,977 families and individuals are homeless in Austin/Travis County on any given day.
- Housing costs have increased 70% since 1990, while wage levels have increased 40%.
- Full-time workers need to earn $16.00 per hour (three times the minimum wage) to afford a 2-bedroom apartment (fair market rent = $820 per month).

Desired Result: More families and individuals will secure and maintain affordable housing.

Urgent Issue: Many families and individuals become homeless or cannot transition out of homelessness because of the shortage of transitional housing.

Data:

- Over 1,400 homeless families, individuals and youth need transitional housing on any given day, but only 605 beds (within 221 units) in Austin/Travis County exist.

Desired Result: More homeless people will have access to transitional housing programs and successfully transition to permanent housing with greater self-sufficiency.

Urgent Issue: Many people are turned away from shelters, put on a waiting list, or cannot utilize existing facilities due to lack of space and/or special needs (mental health, addiction status).

Data:

- Approximately 1,094 people need emergency shelter on any given day in Austin/Travis County, where only 440 total shelter beds exist.
- 25% of chronically homeless adults suffer from mental illness, and 50% of this population also has a substance abuse disorder.
- Families with children are the fastest growing segment of the homeless population, and at least half have experienced domestic violence.
- 36% of homeless youth have been sexually and/or physically abused at home or on the streets and are therefore fearful of utilizing traditional adult shelters.

Desired Result: More families with children, chronically homeless individuals, and street youth will have access to shelter in environments that are safe and that offer appropriate services.
